LOCAL NEWS.

The races at the Park to-day will begin at ten o'clock. There are seven or eight events on the programme.

Mr. Thos. E. Evans was unanimously acquitted of manslaughter by the Waikuku jury after a few minutes consultation.

A key found at the dining table under the grand stand can be had from Mr. F. Horn by the owner on paying for this notice.

All the commissioned officers of the Honolulu Rifles have been taken into the Officers' Jockey Club, an army organization under the patronage of the King.

Remember the union picnic of Bethel Union and Fort street Sunday schools on the grounds of Mr. C. M. Cooke, Beretania street, beginning at half-past ten this morning.

A letter was received here yesterday for a gentleman on Kauai, stamped as having been "missed to Yokohama." The missive crossed the Pacific three times to get here, although very plainly addressed.

Mr. A. M. Hewitt has the thanks of the HERALD for newspaper favors, the more cordial because needed on account of our regular California files having gone astray. Mr. McLane, purser of the Zealandia, is similarly thanked for the latest dates supplied by him.

This evening's programme for the Blue Ribbon League entertainment comprises a piano solo by Miss S. Young, a reading by Mr. S. B. Dole, a song by Miss Morley, a reading by Mr. Severance, a song by Miss Grieve and an address by Rev. E. C. Oggel.

Mr. J. M. Sass reports the California boom as still in progress, and considers Hawaii would share in it if only better advertised. He met through passengers for the Colonies who had recently been surprised at learning of this route to that quarter.

Mr. Alikia Cartwright Dowsett, son of Hon. Jas. I. Dowsett, returned home by the Zealandia from attendance at Brewer's Military Academy, St. Matthew's Hall, San Mateo, Cal., having at the closing exercises of that institution received a graduate's diploma and a captain's commission.

The Rev. E. C. Oggel will close his ministry of nearly three years in Honolulu at the Lyceum to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Oggel expect to go up to Waikapu, Maui, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Cornwell until shortly before the departure of the steamship Australia for the United States.

Mr. F. Horn spread a regular hotel table under the grand stand at Kapiolani Park yesterday. Clean covers, elegant utensils, an extensive choice of viands, and comfortable chairs, all combined in producing a most satisfactory arrangement. Ice cream and other luxuries were served over the counter or at table as desired. Mr. Horn will be on hand again to-day, with an ample supply for the larger gathering anticipated.

Sir Alfred Sherlock Gooch, of England, left San Francisco with the intention of going through to the Colonies. Before the Zealandia reached Honolulu, however, he decided to remain over here till next steamer, in order to become acquainted with the interesting points of this group and enjoy the balmy climate. This decision may be credited to the information imparted to Sir Alfred by Mr. Sass in conversations on the passage.

Mr. J. Mort Oat, well-known here as a bookseller and stationer, having sold out to Mr. J. H. Soper and left for the Coast only a few months ago, turns up as the business manager of the Della, a well got up weekly paper at Visalia, Tulare county, Cal. The editor of the paper is Mr. Geo. W. Stewart, also well-known here as one of the editors of the Saturday Press. With Mr. Oat's business ability and Mr. Stewart's editorial skill, the Visalians may count on getting their money's worth from patronage of their local paper.

KAMEHAMEHA DAY.

Fourth Annual Meeting of the Hawaiian Jockey Club.

Results of the First Day.

Although yesterday was not a public holiday, to-day being Kamehameha Day, there was a goodly attendance at the race course of the Hawaiian Jockey Club. There was a pretty fair afternoon's sport, but the wrong horses were rather frequently backed by the city people. The fifth race on the programme was declared off for the day. Officers of the meeting were as follows:—

Judges: C. O. Berger, Capt. John H. Brown, Col. C. H. Judd. Mr. Berger acted in place of Mr. F. S. Pratt, who was absent.

Time Keepers: F. P. Hastings and J. G. Spencer.

Starter: Major A. B. Haley.

Clerk of Course: J. M. Dowsett.

Saddling Paddock: E. R. Miles.

The races began at 12 noon, ending at about 4:30, and the results are reported with the entries below:—

FIRST RACE.

Honolulu Plate—$50. Running race; 1/2 mile dash; for Hawaiian-bred horses.

1. Iago, g. g., aged; purple jacket, lavender sleeves and cap; John Ouderkirik.

2. Waterford Colt, g. h., 5 years; baby blue and garnet; N. Perry.

3. Surprise, g. g., 4 years; purple jacket, white cap; J. A. Cummins.

4. Poni Moi, g. g., aged; silver gray and cardinal Maltese cross; W. H. Cornwell.

5. Nettie Brown, b. m., aged; purple and yellow; Kealia Ranch.

Waterford Colt took the lead from the start, maintaining it all the way and winning by half a length in 51 seconds. Surprise second, Poni Moi third, Nettie Brown fourth, Iago last.

SECOND RACE.

Reciprocity Plate—$100. Running race; 3/4 mile dash; free to all.

1. Rockwell, b. g., 4 years; purple jacket, lavender sleeves and cap; John Ouderkirik.

2. Nisa b. m., 4 years; silver gray, and cardinal Maltese cross; W. H. Cornwell.

3. Amandine, b. m., 4 years; purple and yellow; Kealia Ranch.

There was a false start, but Nisa and Amandine went over the course, Rockwell staying at the starting post. Nisa came in lamed and withdrew from the race. A pretty good start was made between Rockwell and Amandine, the latter having the pole. It was a close race throughout, but Amandine gained on the home stretch and won by two lengths in 1 minute 19 seconds.

THIRD RACE.

Oceanic Purse—$100. Trotting race; mile heats; best 3 in 5; to harness; free for all.

1. Joe Dake, b. g., aged; D. H. Davis.

2. Clementine, b. m., aged; Miles & Hayley.

3. Twinkle, b. m., aged; Kealia Ranch.

Clementine had been withdrawn before the races. Three or four false starts were made. In the two heats first run, Twinkle won by about ten lengths and half a length, in 2 minutes 38 seconds and 3 minutes 35 seconds, respectively. The third heat was run after the third race, Twinkle winning it and the prize by several lengths in 2 minutes 40 seconds. There was a succession of breaks in every heat, both contestants doing more than a share of running.

FOURTH RACE.

Waikapu Cup—$50 added. Running race; 3/4 mile dash; free for all; winner to beat the record of "May D." 1:19 1/2.

1. Queen Kapiolani, s. m., 4 years; purple jacket, white cap; J. A. Cummins.

2. Hancock, b. h., aged; silver gray and cardinal Maltese cross; W. H. Cornwell.

3. Patrol, b. h., aged; cherry jacket, pink cap and sash; Huntley & Potter.

There was much difficulty in getting a start in this event, Queen Kapiolani being all but unmanageable, throwing off her jockey twice. Part of the trouble was in Patrol being too far to the rear of the starting post at each attempt to get the horses in line. At length a sort of flying start was made, Hancock having a decided advantage, which though hard pressed by the Queen he kept up most of the way round. About half-way round Queen Kapiolani was a neck ahead, but on coming on the home stretch Hancock gained on her. Patrol made up a material distance lost at the start, then fell back some, finally coming in a very close third. Hancock was the winner by two lengths in 1 minute 16 1/2 seconds; Queen Kapiolani second.

FIFTH RACE.

Breeder's Plate—$75. Running race; mile dash; free for all 3 year olds.

1. Ka Aolani, bay f., 3 years; purple jacket, white cap; J. A. Cummins.

2. Homaikawaa, b. m., 3 years; cherry jacket, pink cap and sash; Huntley & Potter.

3. Mattie M., b. m., 3 years; purple and yellow; Kealia Ranch. Declared off.

SIXTH RACE.

Hawaiian Plate—$75. Running race; mile dash; free for all.

1. Rockwell, b. g., 4 years; purple jacket, lavender sleeves and cap; John Ouderkirik.

2. Queen Kapiolani, s. m., 4 years; purple jacket, white cap; J. A. Cummins.

3. Col. Gift, b. g., 5 years; silver gray, cardinal Maltese cross; W. H. Cornwell.

4. Patrol, b. h., aged; cherry jacket; pink cap and sash; Huntley & Potter.

5. Amandine, b. m., 4 years; purple and yellow; Kealia Ranch.

Queen Kapiolani and Amandine had been withdrawn. This proved a very pretty, although not a fast race. Col. Gift was the favorite till the last, but when the crowd saw Queen Kapiolani's jockey riding Patrol there was an evident turn in the latter's favor. There was a fairly good start, Rockwell being left at first. Patrol had the pole, and it was neck and neck with him and Col. Gift most of the way. Rockwell was seen to pull up finely, but never was able to get even. Patrol came in first with bleeding sides in 1 min. 47 sec.; Col. Gift, fairly flying up to the wire to gain the lead, was a very close second.

This concluded the day's sport, and the gathering dispersed to the strains of the national anthem by the Royal Hawaiian Band. To-day is the great national racing day, and being a public holiday there is likely to be a large concourse in attendance.

DR. PARDEE'S REMEDY.

(The Only Reliable Blood Purifier.)

A SPECIFIC FOR RHEUMATISM, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Neuralgia, Ring Worm, And all other Skin and Blood Diseases.

IT REGULATES THE LIVER AND KIDNEYS.

Cures Indigestion and all diseases arising from an unbalanced condition of the system.

DR. MARTINEZ, of London, the celebrated specialist, says of PARDEE'S REMEDY: "I have used it for twenty years for Blood Diseases, such as Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Tetter and Cancer, and I cannot recommend it too highly." The Rev. Dr. THOMAS, of Hong Kong, China, says: "PARDEE'S REMEDY is a wonderful medicine for the Blood. I have prescribed it hundreds of times for Leprosy, and when given in time it always cures the patient. I can safely say that Leprosy will never break out on persons who take PARDEE'S REMEDY regularly, and I advise all persons living in countries where Leprosy is prevalent to take PARDEE'S REMEDY as a preventive."
